Woxsen School of Business, Hyderabad has witnessed successful placement season with marquee companies participating in the placement drive and offering coveted profiles across sectors to the PGDM & PGPXP batch. Woxsen aims to nurture the spirit of innovation and produce many inspired change agents, intrapreneurs and entrepreneurs whose genius is undeniable. The exemplary performance witnessed during the current placement season reaffirms that fact. The Final Placement saw a good combination of repeat and first time recruiters who were delighted with the quality of the students, nonpareil faculty, and avant-grade curriculum. Considering all, they expressed satisfaction with the quality of the students that Woxsen crafts each year and ensured taking part in this year's placement season as well
