

Policy and Regulations

SEED Research Grant

With Effective From

August 1, 2021

Objective:

Woxsen University encourages its faculties, students to come forward with different proposals with context of research, innovation, industrial case studies. The University identifies the need of research and the necessary infrastructure requirements, therefore, the faculties and students are open to propose their research funding support. However, the final grant amount for funding is to be decided by the expert panel comm.

Eligibility:

- A full time/regular faculty, student of School of Business is eligible to apply for the funding support.
- A student may apply individually or with a group of not more than 5 members can apply under the mentorship/supervision of a faculty member
- In case a faculty, student wishes to discontinue to work, study from the university, the funding support in such scenario shall be halted to the particular member.

Objectives:

- To create an environment fostering research culture amongst the students and the faculty
- To support in the research needs of students and faculties to kick start their research
- Promote IPR and product development
- Promote innovations and publications

Application Procedure:

- The school shall release a call for proposal on timely basis
- Applicant may submit the application as per the format given in Annexure 1
- The proposals shall be scrutinized and shortlisted for presentation by an expert panel committee nominated by the Dean School of Business
- The shortlisted proposals shall be presented in presence of an expert panel committee nominated by the Dean School of Business
- The proposals granted funding shall receive a formal letter of funding support mentioning grant amount and duration of support

Acknowledgement:

The granted proposals shall acknowledge the funding support at suitable platforms such as research publications, innovation challenges, competitions, conferences at national and international levels

IPR & Copyrights:

Any proposal leading to the IPR and copyrights shall be follow the Intellectual Property Rights Policy of the University.

Fund Disbursal:

Funds being disbursed shall follow the norms of the University and shall be in compliance with university accounts dept.

